The Texas Retired Teachers Foundation is a non-profit, perpetual corporation whose formation was authorized by the Texas Retired Teachers Association. Final approval by state and federal regulating agencies occurred on March 22, 2000. The Foundation's purpose is to support educational, charitable, and other causes in support of Texas public education in general, and specific areas which affect retired public school and higher education personnel. Contributions in the form of bequests, legacies and other types of donations are deductible for federal estate and gift tax under the provisions of the IRS code 501(c)(3).
